

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The American Association of University Women, the oldest and largest women's group in the United States dedicated to educational equity for all women, is this year celebrating its centennial; and,

WHEREAS, Today the American Association of University Women represents over 190,000 pluralistic, diverse members who hold no less than a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university, joined in advocacy, action, research and lifelong learning; and,

WHEREAS, The American Association of University Women recognizes the richness and sincerity of real sisterhood; an understanding that women working together in concert can achieve common goals; and a recognition that one's personal independence depends upon the strength of one's interdependence; and,

WHEREAS, The American Association of University Women has demonstrated that it has learned the meaning of how to achieve common goals; has moved into the political arena of the state and the nation; and has recognized that housework, the nurturing of children, and women's voluntary experience are undervalued in American society; and,

WHEREAS, To help celebrate the hundred years of the American Association of University Women's service to America, the South Dakota Division of the American Association of University Women is urging all eligible women to join other educated women in membership in their nearest local branch:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the year of 1981 as the CENTENNIAL YEAR of the South Dakota State Division of the

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR
